Colón, Panama

In north central Panama is Colón, the capital of Colón Province, which is the northern terminus of the Panama Railroad and the Panama Canal. Colón and Cristóbal form a major international transshipment center and are a large commercial and tourist center. The city was founded around 1850 by builders of the Panama Railroad, but it wasn't until construction on the Panama Canal began did Colón really start to boom.

Thousands of people from various backgrounds worked on the Canal contributing to Colón's prosperity. Colón is the second most populated city in Panama. There are many interesting sights to see in and around the area, including some attractive historical buildings with an old-world charm. Some of Colón's main attractions include: Fort San Lorenzo, the Free Zone and the Gatun Locks.

Not to be Missed in Cartagena

Amazing Cartagena: Bay and Walled City: Tour the tropical waters of Cartagena's bay on a scenic sightseeing cruise that culminates at the city's Historic District. Experience the breathtaking sites and natural beauty of Cartagena's bay and enjoy the contrast between the city's historic landmarks and modern marvels. Live 500 years of Cartagena's history and learn about the city's fascinating culture on a walking tour of the Walled City, dubbed a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and its many attractions, including the impressive fortifications, bustling plazas, and stunning cathedrals. Price: $59.00

Unique High End Dinning And Carriage Experience In Cartagena's Walled City: The dim lighting sets up the city as the perfect scene to expend a romantic evening in the streets of Cartagena's historical center. Our tour begins at the entrance of the Walled City at The Clock Tower, where after a complementary photo session you will board a horse driven carriage around the Walled City; enjoy the views of its plazas and balconies full of flowering bougainvillea while heading towards to our dining place: one of Cartagena's most refined restaurants. Enjoy the live performances of great musicians along with a complete characteristic meal Caribbean cuisine. Price: $160

Private Customized programs can also be booked through Destination Concierge.

Please Use Caution In Port

As common practice, we wish to remind our guests to exercise extra caution when ashore. Avoid carrying large amounts of money, do not wear jewelry, make sure cameras, purses and bags are secure at all times, and beware of pick-pockets.

Important Health Information

Celebrity Cruises is committed to the safety and health of our guests and crew. We have been closely monitoring the Zika virus situation and are aware that the CDC has issued a travel alert for certain countries where Zika virus transmission is ongoing. In order to reduce the risk of contracting any number of diseases spread by mosquito bite, including Zika virus, we urge guests to take precautions to avoid mosquito bites by remaining in well screened or air conditioned areas when possible, by wearing light-colored clothing that adequately covers the arms and legs, and by applying insect repellent to both skin and clothing. Should you have any additional questions about the Zika virus, please visit the CDC and/or World Health Organization's (WHO) websites. Mosquito repellent is available in the ship's gift shop or medical facility.

Future Cruises

Make your next cruise even more special with our Exciting offers. Book now to get your choice of our offers on your future cruises. See the Cruise Sales Team for more details on Deck 4 from 9:00am to 9:00pm.

Balcony Doors

Please keep all balcony doors closed to ensure our ship continues to be free of insects and to manage the humidity levels. Thank you for your cooperation.
