Cartagena, Colombia

Cartagena, also known as Cartagena de Indias (Cartagena of the West Indies) was founded in 1533 by Don Pedro de Heredia, and named after the port of Cartagena in Spain's Murcia region. It was a major center of early Spanish settlement in the Americas and continues to be an economic hub as well as a popular tourist destination. Today the city looks more like a modern metropolis than one of the oldest cities of the New World.

The Port, Fortresses and Monuments of Cartagena have been on UNESCO's World Heritage List since 1984. History is present throughout the city in its walls, colonial architecture, and in numerous impressive military and religious monuments. These all come together harmoniously with clear-water beaches, exotic nearby islands, and with the livelihood of bars, cafés, restaurants and night clubs.

Not to be Missed in Cartagena

Best of Cartagena: Discover Colombia's fifth largest city on an excursion into the sites and sounds of Cartagena. Tour the dreaded dungeons of the Spanish Inquisition. Explore the underground chambers of Las Bovedas, where today local artisans display their works. Find yourself caught up in Cartagena at its most impressive. Price: $74.00

Afternoon Historical Old City Walking Tour: Learn about Cartagena's rich history and its architecture on this guided walking tour of the Old City, with a drink included. After a coach ride to the walled-in Old City UNESCO World Heritage Site your knowledgeable guide will begin your walking tour at the Heredia Theater to Bolivar Plaza and Saint Peter Claver Plaza. View iconic Spanish architecture and homes and walk to the beautiful Santo Domingo Plaza, home to the oldest church in the city. Price: $49.00
